We appeal to the Free World, to prevent and stop Serbia in its tracks before it becomes too late. The world must not repeat mistakes previously made in Croatia, Bosnia and Kosovo.

We appeal to you, to put pressure on Belgrade and to halt and avert their actions, because otherwise they may create a crisis that could lead to possible bloodshed, and even civil war.

SERBIA IS STIRRING UP A NEW CONFLICT IN THE BALKANS

A forceful deposition of the legitimate Vojvodinian government

After rejecting the Kosovo deal, the disgruntled and desperate Serbian government turned their anger and fury towards the Province of Vojvodina and its government; accusing them of treachery and alleged "separatism".

Just to remind you, the Province of Vojvodina – a federal unit and the constitutional element of former Yugoslavia – was forcefully adjoined to Serbia in 1988. It is the only remnant and unresolved issue in Yugoslavia's process of disintegration.

Most people may not know this, but the Province of Vojvodina was the very first victim of Milosevic's aggression, when he organized the so called "anti-bureaucratic revolution" in October 1988; illegally and unconstitutionally deposing not only the Provincial government – but the entire provincial apparatus as well. Around 30-50.000 people fell victims to his purge. The manner in which Milosevic's regime deposed Vojvodina's legal and legitimate government and apparatus irresistibly reminisced Adolf Hiltler's Annexation of Austria, in 1938; a preface to WWII.

The reason for Serbia's occupation of Vojvodina was mainly to secure economic means, to wage wars against Slovenia, Croatia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Kosovo, and even Montenegro.

Even though occupied, Vojvodina still remained utterly opposed to Milosevic's regime, dedicated to Democracy, ceasing wars and rejoining the EU; in which Vojvodina has its roots (being established, and historically being part of the former Austro-Hungarian empire).

Vojvodina soon became an Opposition stronghold to Milosevic's ruthless regime.

12 years after Milosevic's deposition, Democratic parties were overwhelmingly chosen by voters to rule Vojvodina. Last year the remnants of Milosevic's regime regained power in Serbia.

Milosevic's former henchmen, deeply worried and dissatisfied with the outcome of the Kosovo deal, turned their anger, and the attention of Serbia's people – once again towards the soft target, known as the Province of Vojvodina (awarded full membership in the Assembly of European Regions for its democratic and integrational dedication).

Tomorrow, on Friday 12th April 2013, the Belgrade Government is organizing a protest meeting in Novi Sad, Vojvodina in front of Vojvodina's Parliament. Its plans to overthrow the legitimate Provincial Government of Vojvodina, would once again repeat the events of Milosevic's "anti-bureacratc revolution" of 1988, thus plunging the Balkans into another possible conflict.

We therefore appeal to the Free World, to prevent and stop Serbia in its tracks before it becomes too late. The world must not repeat mistakes previously made in Croatia, Bosnia and Kosovo.

The government of Serbia is preparing a coupe d' etat, in order to depose a legitimate and legal Government of the Province of Vojvodina.

Forcefully annulling the electoral results – against the will of the voters.

The usurpers have openly announced their intentions, by planning to gather their supporters at the Parliament of Vojvodina on the upcoming Friday, 12. April 2013 – to try and force out the legitimate Vojvodinian government; apparently – BY ALL MEANS!

The reason behind the displacement of Vojvodina's legitimate and legal Government is its support the pro-EU integration steps and not to succumb to Nationalist rhetorics and decisions.

As you may be aware, the Serbian Government has stalled its Peacemaking dialogue with Pristina and the EU, consequently deciding against the EU integrations and the membership.

Vojvodina's government is politically and strategically opposed to Belgrade's Central Government – strongly and utterly dedicated to the full EU integrations and due reform processes.

We appeal to you, to put pressure on Belgrade and to halt and avert their actions, because otherwise they may create a crisis that could lead to possible bloodshed, and even civil war.

We won't succumb to Belgrade's threats, and we will fight, both for Democracy, as well as for our Rights.
