MARSCH AN DIE DRINA: SERBISCHE UN- DIPLOMATIE

"Marsch an die Drina" ist aber auch eine Hymne der Peiniger, die besonders in der Stadt Foča im Osten Bosniens dunkle Erinnerungen wach ruft. Die Stadt wurde von bosnischen Serben besetzt, die nicht-serbische Bevölkerung vertrieben. Es fanden Massenerschiessungen statt und hunderte muslimische Frauen wurden vergewaltigt, ein Grossteil von ihnen in einer dafür vorgesehenen Halle der Stadt. An die 20.000 Menschen flohen oder landeten in Konzentrationslagern. Während der Gewaltorgien spielten die Peiniger ueber die Lautsprecher der Moscheen den "Marsch an die Drina"...

Ein Auszug aus dem siebten Bericht ueber Kriegsverbrechen im ehemaligen Jugoslawien

(<http://www.accessmylibrary.com/article-1G1-13802416/seventh-report-war-crimes.html>) des US-State Departments beschreibt die krude Verbindung von Musik, Patriotismus und praktiziertem Menschenhass:

"Day and night, soldiers came to the house taking two to three women at a time. They were four to five guards at all times, all local Foca Serbs. The woman knew the rapes would begin when 'Mars na Drinu' was played over the loudspeaker of the main mosque. ('Mars na Drinu,' or 'March on the Drina', is reportedly a former Chetnik fighting song that was banned during the Tito years.)

While 'Mars na Drinu' was playing, the women were ordered to strip and soldiers entered the homes taking the ones they wanted. The age of women taken ranged from 12 to 60. Frequently the soldiers would seek out mother and daughter combinations. Many of the women were severely beaten during the rapes. "

The U.N. Security Council, divided between Western powers on one side and Russia and China on the other, has proved helpless in halting a conflict which has spiraled into civil war and killed more than 30,000 people. Erdogan said a system which allowed one or two nations to block intervention in such a grave humanitarian crisis was inherently unjust, and that Syria would go down in history as a U.N. failure much like Bosnia in the 1990s. "How sad is that the United Nations is as helpless today as it was 20 years ago when it watched the massacre of hundreds of thousands of people in the Balkans, Bosnia and Srebrenica," Erdogan told the Istanbul conference.

The July 1995 massacre in Srebrenica was the worst on European soil since World War Two, in which Dutch U.N. peacekeepers abandoned what had been designated a U.N. safe haven to advancing Bosnian Serb forces, who then killed 8,000 Muslim men and boys and bulldozed their corpses into pits.
